

St. Stephen Speaker Series
Prayer: Connecting with Jesus

Fr. Paschal Morlino, OSB

*Pastor of our sister parish
St. Benedict in Baltimore, will speak on Benedictine Prayer*

February 15, 7:00pm in the school hall

Fr. Paschal's deep faith, hard work, street smarts, all-encompassing kindness, and entrepreneurial spirit have kept St. Benedict Parish one of the last remaining lights on the tough streets of West Baltimore.

All are welcome to this free event. Join us at 6:30 PM for light refreshments, and for the presentation at 7:00 PM.

Please RSVP at www.ststephenspeakerseries.com or call the Parish Center at 410-592-7071.

*Listen and attend with the ear of your heart.
St. Benedict*

Fr. Paschal Morlino, O.S.B., is a monk of Saint Vincent Archabbey, Latrobe, Pennsylvania. He has led Saint Benedict Church as pastor for 30 years.

He is also the founder of Adelphoi Village, a non-profit child care agency that provides a continuum of care to over 2,500 youth per year through group homes, foster care/adoptive services, education, mental health services, in-home services and aftercare.

Fr. Paschal carries the honorary title of Archimandrite of Akka. This title, bestowed by the Melkite Catholic Church, recognizes Fr. Paschal's support of the work by the Archdiocese of Galilee, Israel.
